The annual staff opens the doors of RHS to you!

We the annual staff because of our deep admiration and gratitude, dedicate the Roosevelt Eagle to . . .
Mr. B. J. Eudy

Mr. Eudy, always full of smiles and laughter, has been a wonderful friend to all students.

His treats and Honor Rolls make students want to always work to do a little bit better.

Mr. Eudy has shown much pride and concern for Roosevelt by participating in pep rallies.

Here he is as a Cooper Pirate.

Mr. Eudy teaches Typing I and II, and is sponsor of the Roosevelt Reveille.

His guidance has made this the fourth consecutive year the Reveille won the first-place newspaper at the 39th annual Panhandle High School Press Association.

The Reveille keeps us well informed about school activities, and means a great deal to Roosevelt students.

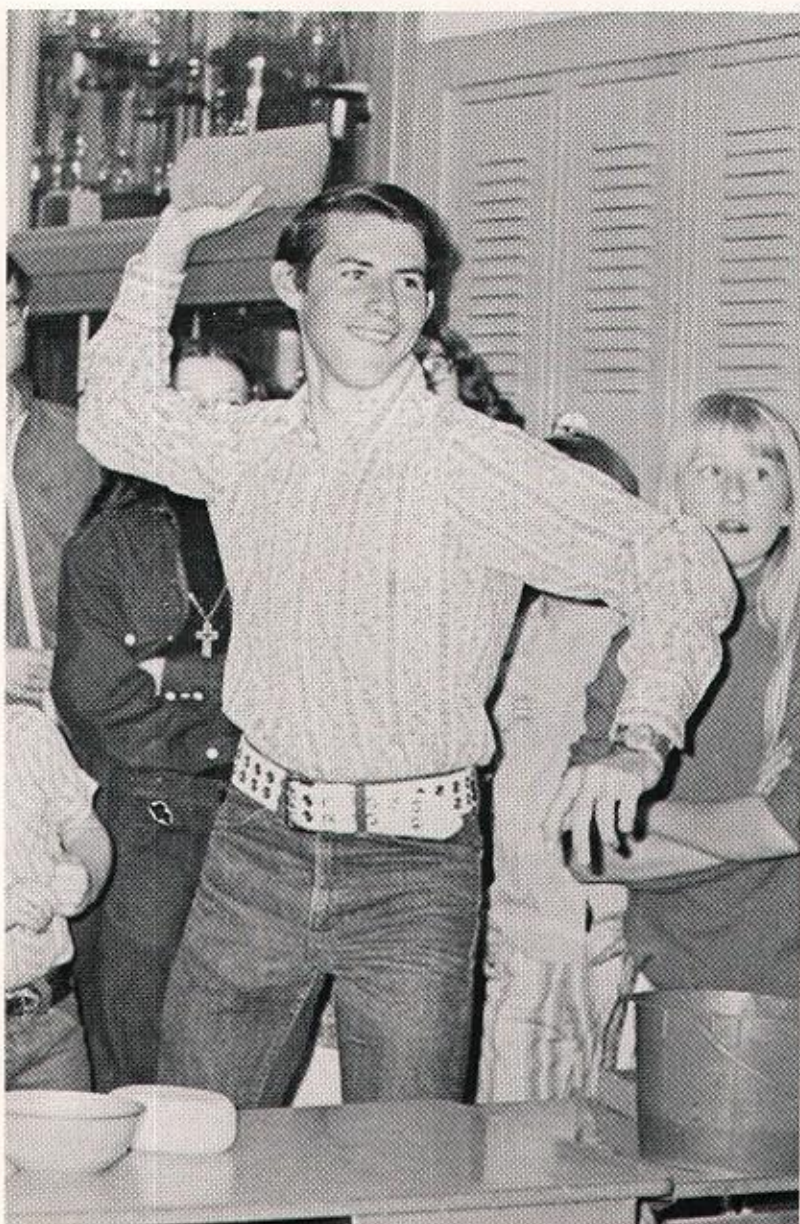

School Is . . .

Relaxation!

Putting on programs.

Releasing tension!

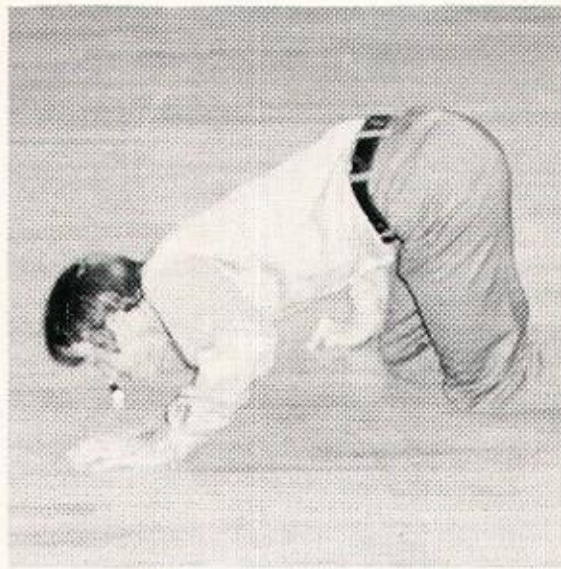

Enjoying the season.

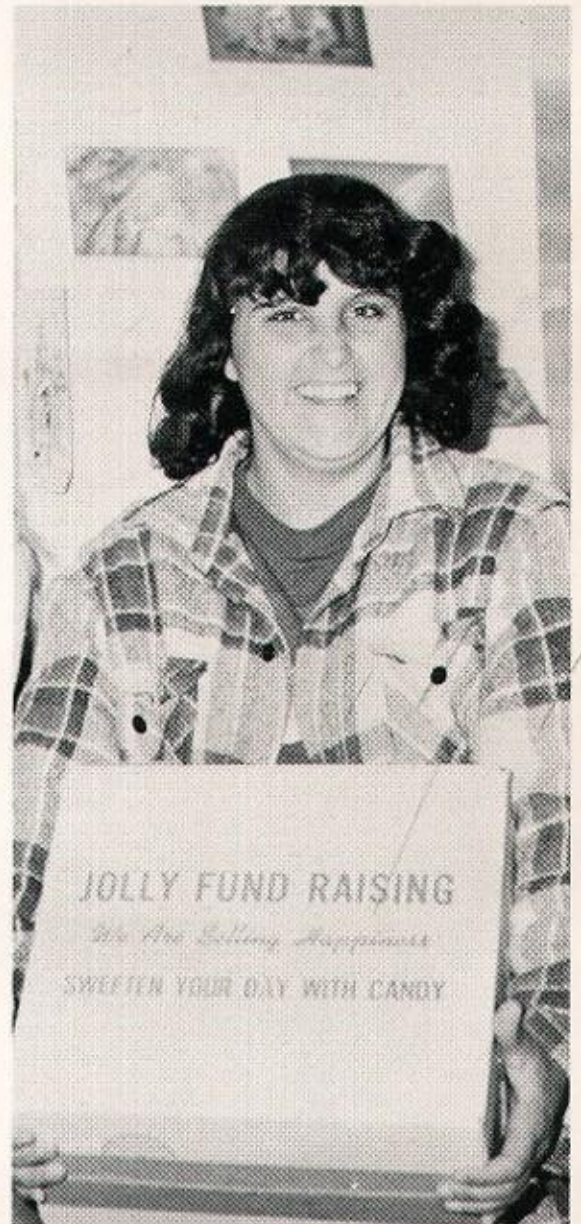

School is . . .

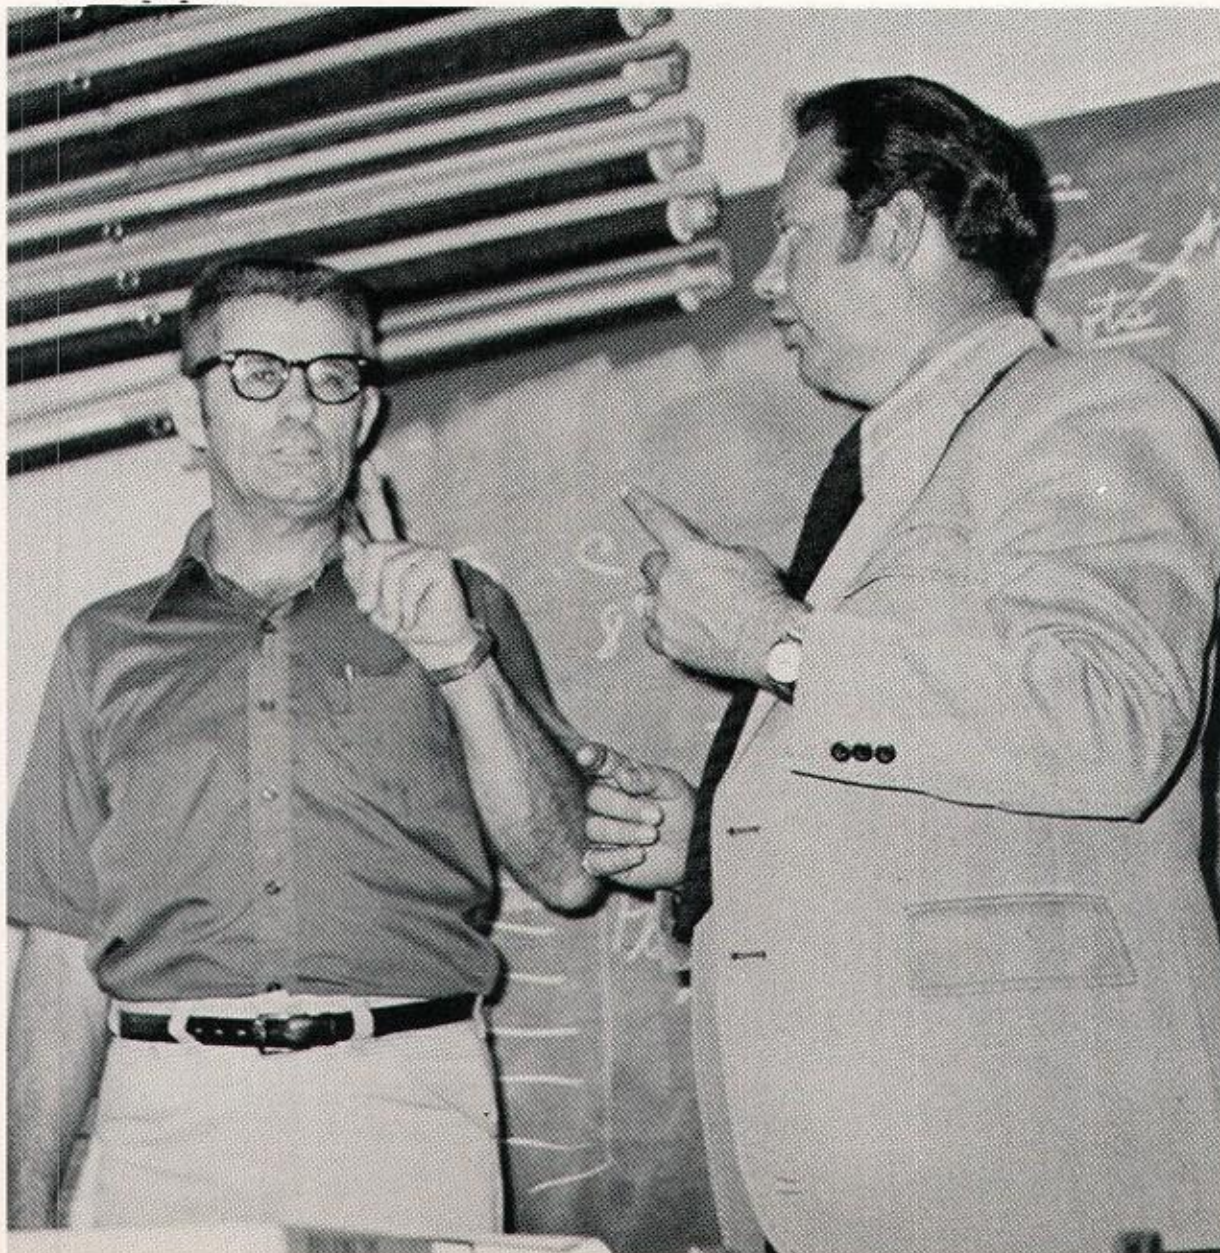

Looking for a reference for a term paper.

FFA initiation.

Raising money for a class project.

Getting your point across.

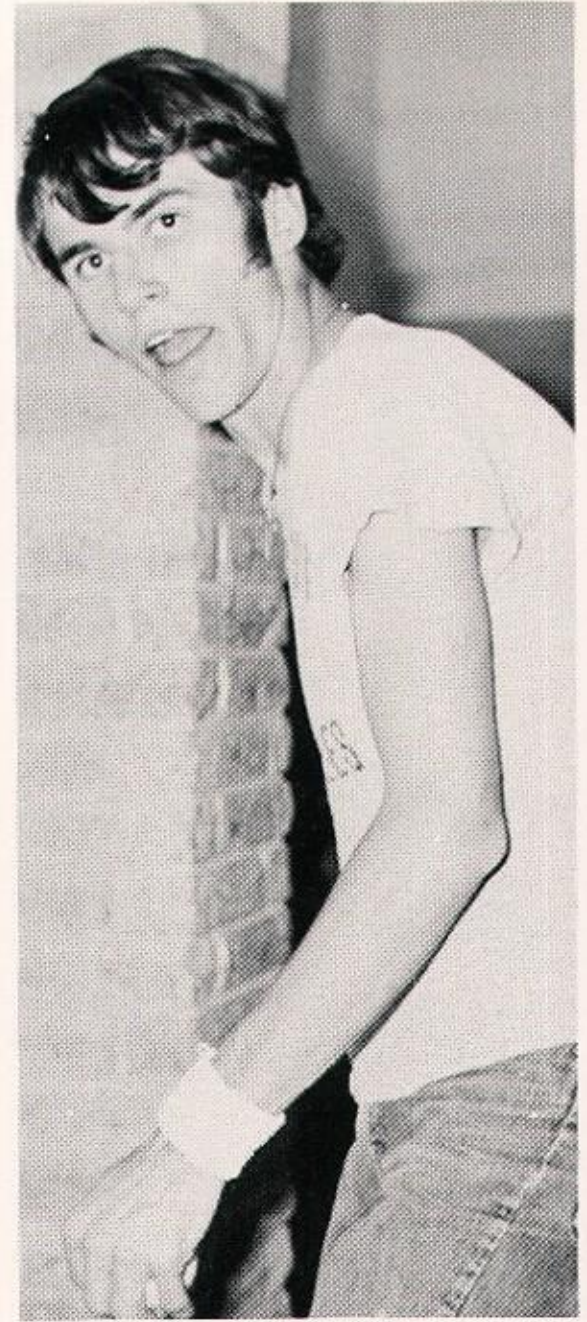

School is . . .

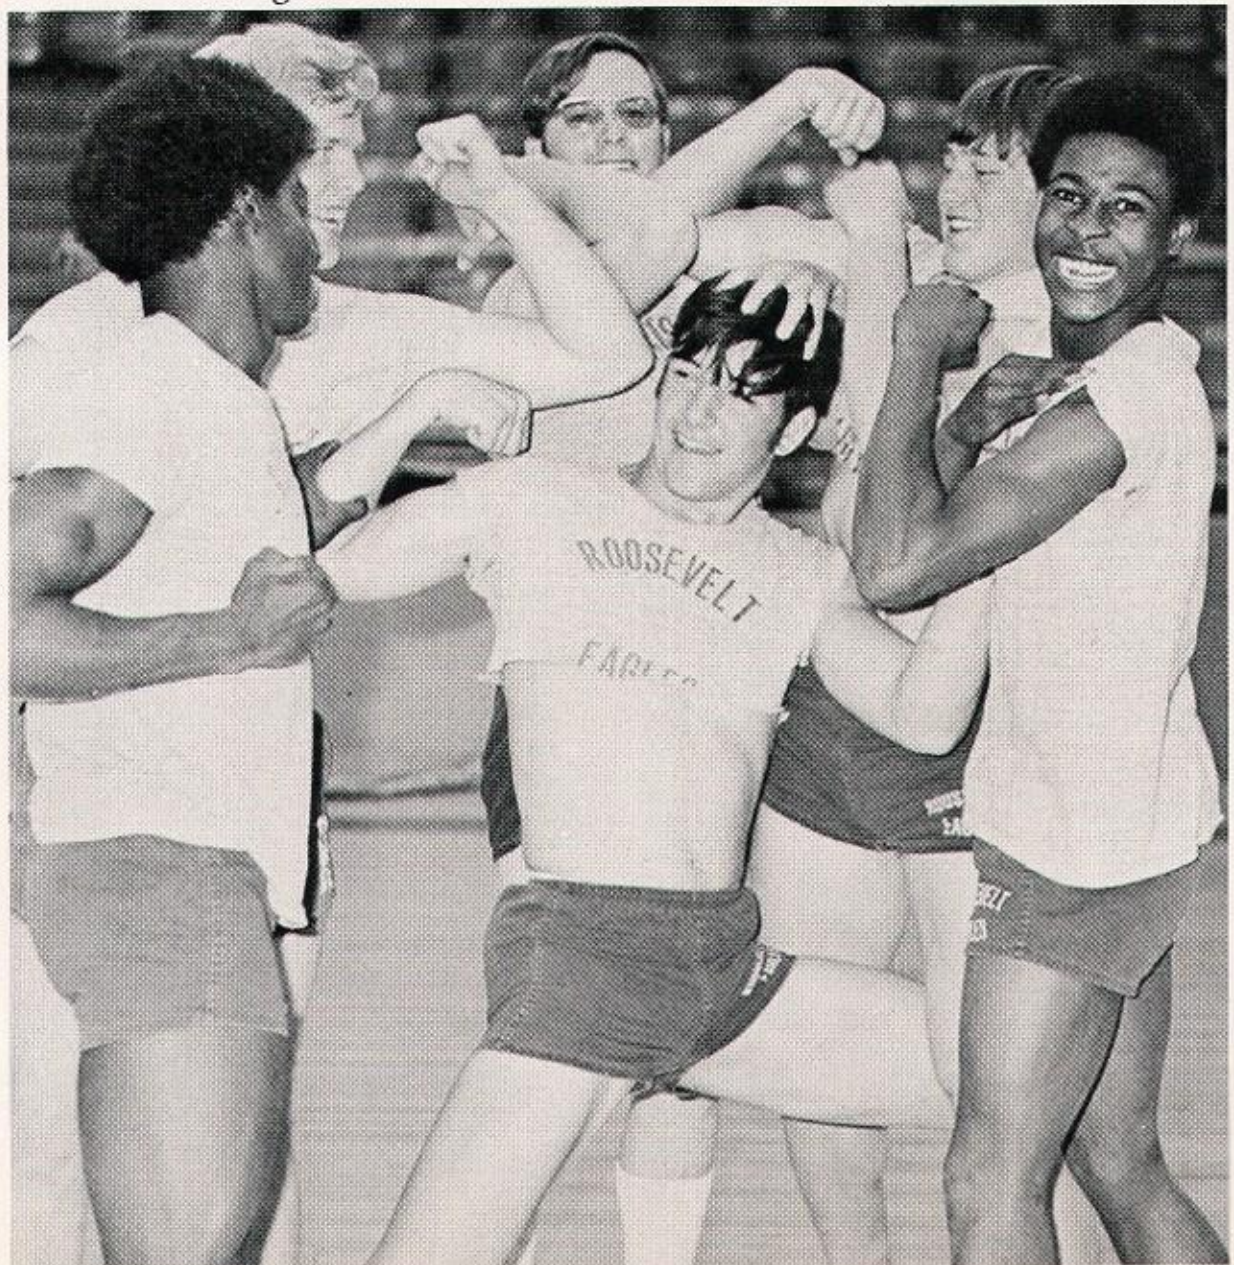

Making new friends.

Greeting the bus driver early in the morning.

Meeting weirdos.

Developing your biceps.

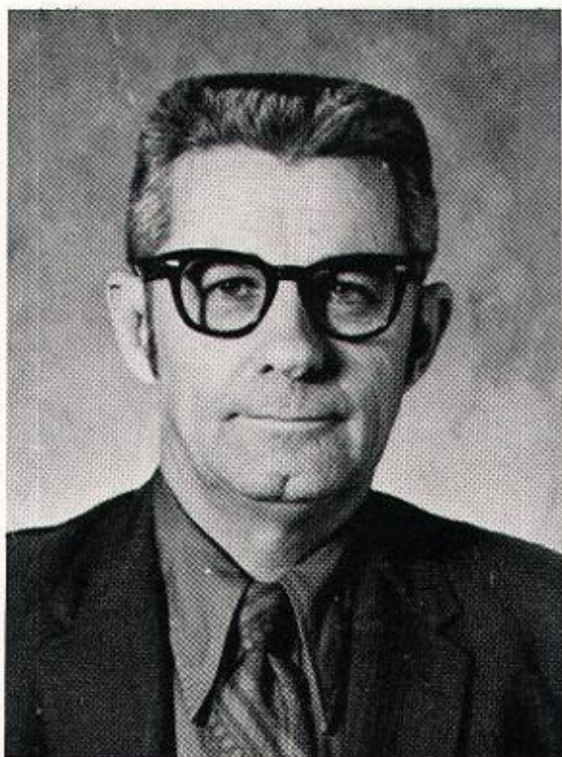

ADMINISTRATION

Tenderly now

turn to the earth

The freshman and junior high teams may seem to never get into the news, but these teams will be very important to Roosevelt in the future. Their achievements and ability now give us a good idea how well the teams will be later. Perhaps our support now will help prepare and encourage these young men for the future.

Donna Cooper, Mary Helen Green, Beatrice Morrison, Robbie Tennison, Gwen McIntire, Gail Williams, Jodean Polyak, Liz Thomas, Kathy Houx, Kaye McMellan, Carolina Ysasaga, Laura Campbell.

The Roosevelt Junior Varsity team is composed of about twelve athletic girls. The majority of the team also participated in track.

To improve these girls' performance their coach, Steve Davis, instructed the guards to practice rebounds and the forwards to complete ten free shots before going in.

This year was not too successful for the girls, but we will all be looking forward to next year and hope that the team has a better season.

B-Team Boys

Junior Varsity Boys closed the 1972-73 season with 10 wins and 6 losses and emerged in a three-way tie for first place in Dist. 5AA with Slaton and Denver City. Track

When most people think of track, they mainly think of running. There are many other events just as important, such as pole vault, discus, high jump and shot put.

Here Raymond Fikes demonstrates his ability to pole vault.

Junior, John Blackwell paced the Eagle varsity tracksters to a fourth-place finish with three first places in the annual Idalou track meet March 3. John Blackwell was the only qualifier for the State Meet, May 3-5 at Austin. He placed 4th in the Class AA 220-yard dash with a time of 22.1.

Senior Class Prophecy

"Madam Renee, we are the 1973 seniors of Roosevelt High, and we would like to discover what is in store for us in the future," a tall, lanky young man quivered.

"Sure, Sonny, now let us peer into my crystal ball. Hmmm. I'm beginning to see many faces. Ah, now I can see a big, black Mr. Lester Dixon being arrested for bigamy and a brown-faced Filemon Perez being awarded the Nobel Prize as the fastest talker in the world."

"Now I see a few people living it up. Richie Crossland is developing his photography hobby into a career, and he is employed by "Playboy." Mr. Reginald Hargrove is modeling for Cosmopolitan, while Miss Jeannette models at "The Godfathers."

"Oh Madam, my name is Linda Lewis. Tell me, please, who and when will I hook my man for good," the petite, brown-eyed girl excitedly queried.

"The ball is a little hazy. Ah! here it is! Young lady, you make a career to be a spinster diamond ring collector."

"Lookie, Lookie - Norma Cenicerros catches a fellow. He is the chief of a pigmy tribe. It will give her a lot of status in the community."

"My crystal ball shows that your class has several brains. (The ball shakes.) Mr. Arthur Green donates his brain to the Salvation Army. Dale Campbell's brain slides off his slide rule, and it takes the famous valedictorian, Gary Cooper, ten years to finish at Bell and Howell Electronics School. I guess that would be all right, but it is a three-year school!

"A department store is coming into view. He-he-he! I see a tall blonde gal selling underwear. Her nameplate says Miss Dana Peek. By the way, that's Men's underwear."

"My gracious! I see a couple of graceful people. Miss Beth Gentry is opening a ballet school, and Mr. Joe Chapman is her prize pupil."

"Trisha Parkman and Steve Hughes write a song which makes it to the top of the charts. They call it "How Sweet it is to Break-Up, then Make-Up."

"A couple of more people become famous because of their teamwork. Miss Brenda Rowan enters a beauty contest and uses Vicki Matsler's taped voice for the talent part."

"Misses Linda and Barbara Patton also form a partnership and open a fingernail polish shop."

"The other soul sister, Brenda, decided to be different. Because of her outstanding quarterbacking talent, she chooses a career with the NFL. You will be able to see her nearly every Sunday on TV, I predict."

"Miss Bridges, could you please tell what will happen in the very near future?" a small hazel-eyed girl interrupts. "Let's see, your name is Toni McMellan. Yes, here it is. After three years of marriage, you are totally bald, and you three sets of twins shall have."

Toni rushes out of the dark room and throws a senior ring to a baffled Keith Stone and screams, "Oh no you won't!" "Keith, Honey, don't worry, your friend Jimmy Ross will help you get her back. Mr. Ross will soon start managing Acuff Beauty Shop and the permanent he gives you, will send that sweet little girl out of this world."

"I do declare! What is this I see? It is a 1985 November Roosevelt Reveille. The front page headline says - Former Roosevelt student, Rose Johnson, elected First Woman President."

"What is this in this corner of my ball? It is showing me a few future celebrities. Miss Connie Edwards stars on Big Time Wrestling, Brady Mimms' picture's on the cover of the Rolling Stones, Blenda Harris is becoming a famous model for Playboy, and Ricky Martin will be the next Mr. Universe."

"Patty Bently will receive the Mother of the Year award, and Mr. Papito Gaona will make all the headlines when he finally has his baby. Because of her sexy smile, Miss LurWondah Brown will become TV star doing toothpaste commercials."

"Because of his rewarding upcoming future, Mr. Roger Bruster will never be forgotten. He will sign a 25-year contract to be Santa Claus at the South Plains Mall. Don't laugh, J. L. Anderson! You become his elf."

"Miss Becky Barnett will also be seen annually in the Lubbock Coliseum. She runs away to the circus, and she is hired as the Fat Woman."

"When Mr. Ricky Anderson tries to form a love-in at a 4-H meeting, Rabbi Tim Christesson and a missionary to Africa, Miss Brenda Shelton, tries to persuade him not to."

"Let us recognize a few students for their medical ability. Miss Donna Mitchell, you will invent a special nerve pill for stenographers, while Mr. David Hettler discovers a way to eliminate pestering freckles."

"Mr. David Jackson forms a partnership with Mr. Ricky Hightower in their nose specialist clinic. They are also leading members of the US Anti-Nose Organization."

"For heaven sakes! We better not leave out Miss Paula Kee. She becomes a dentist."

"Roosevelt students will sob when Mrs. Mary Gonzales retires. But never fear, Sandra Lindsey Gaona is here." "I bet three girls will be happy to hear this. Karen Jo Adams, Donna Davidson, and Mincy Neal, I proudly announce to you that you are made a part of the Flying Wings. You are the team's star bench warmers."

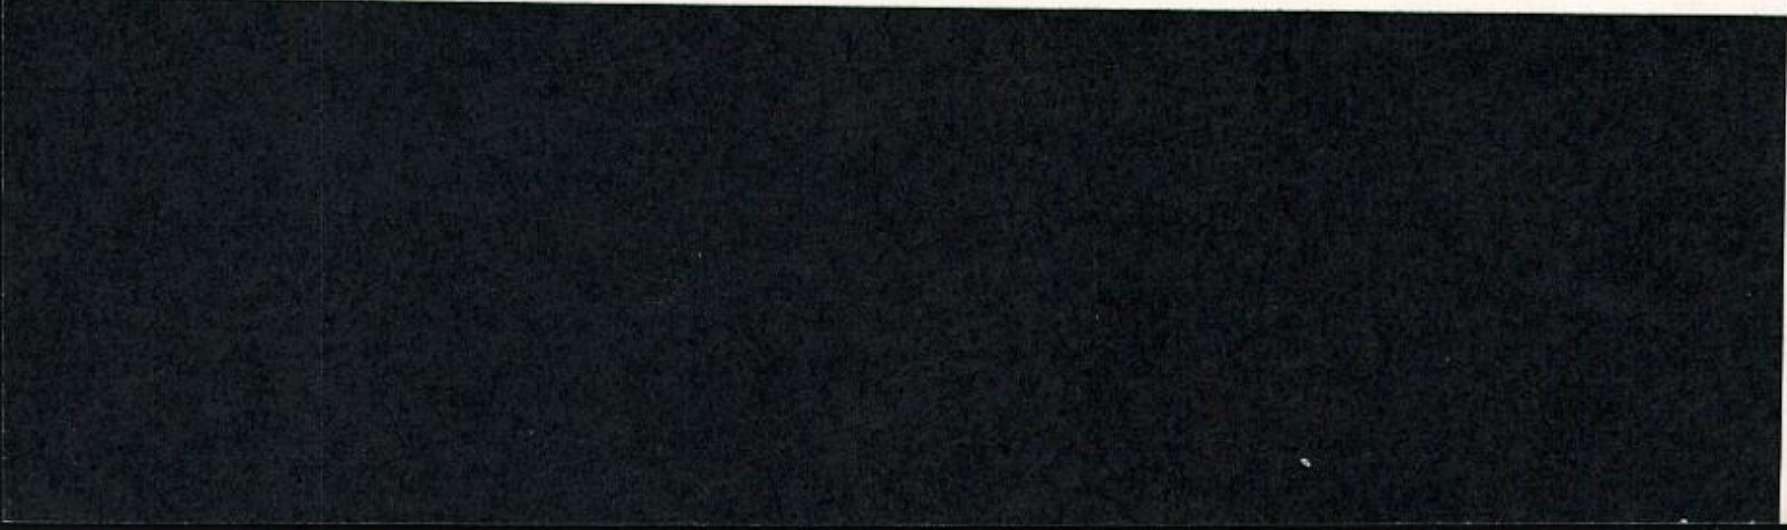

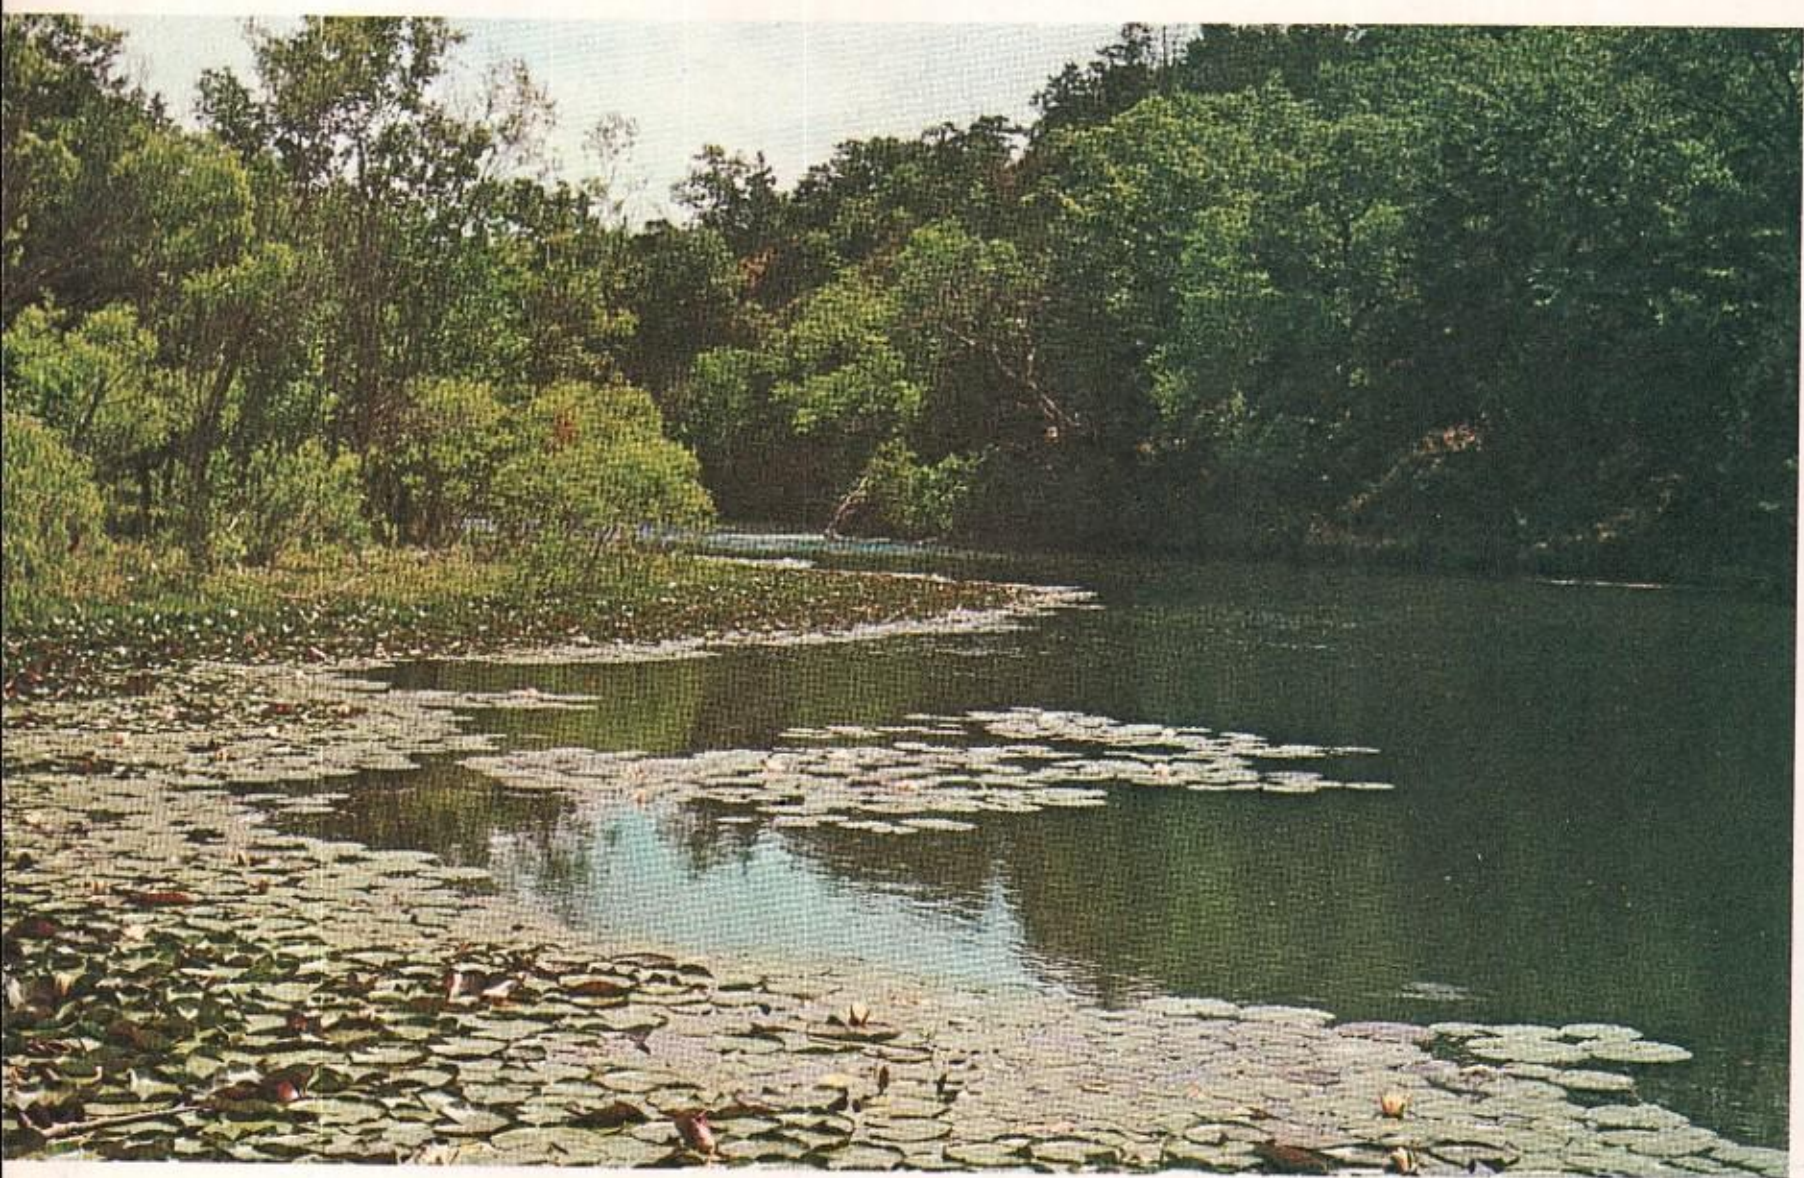

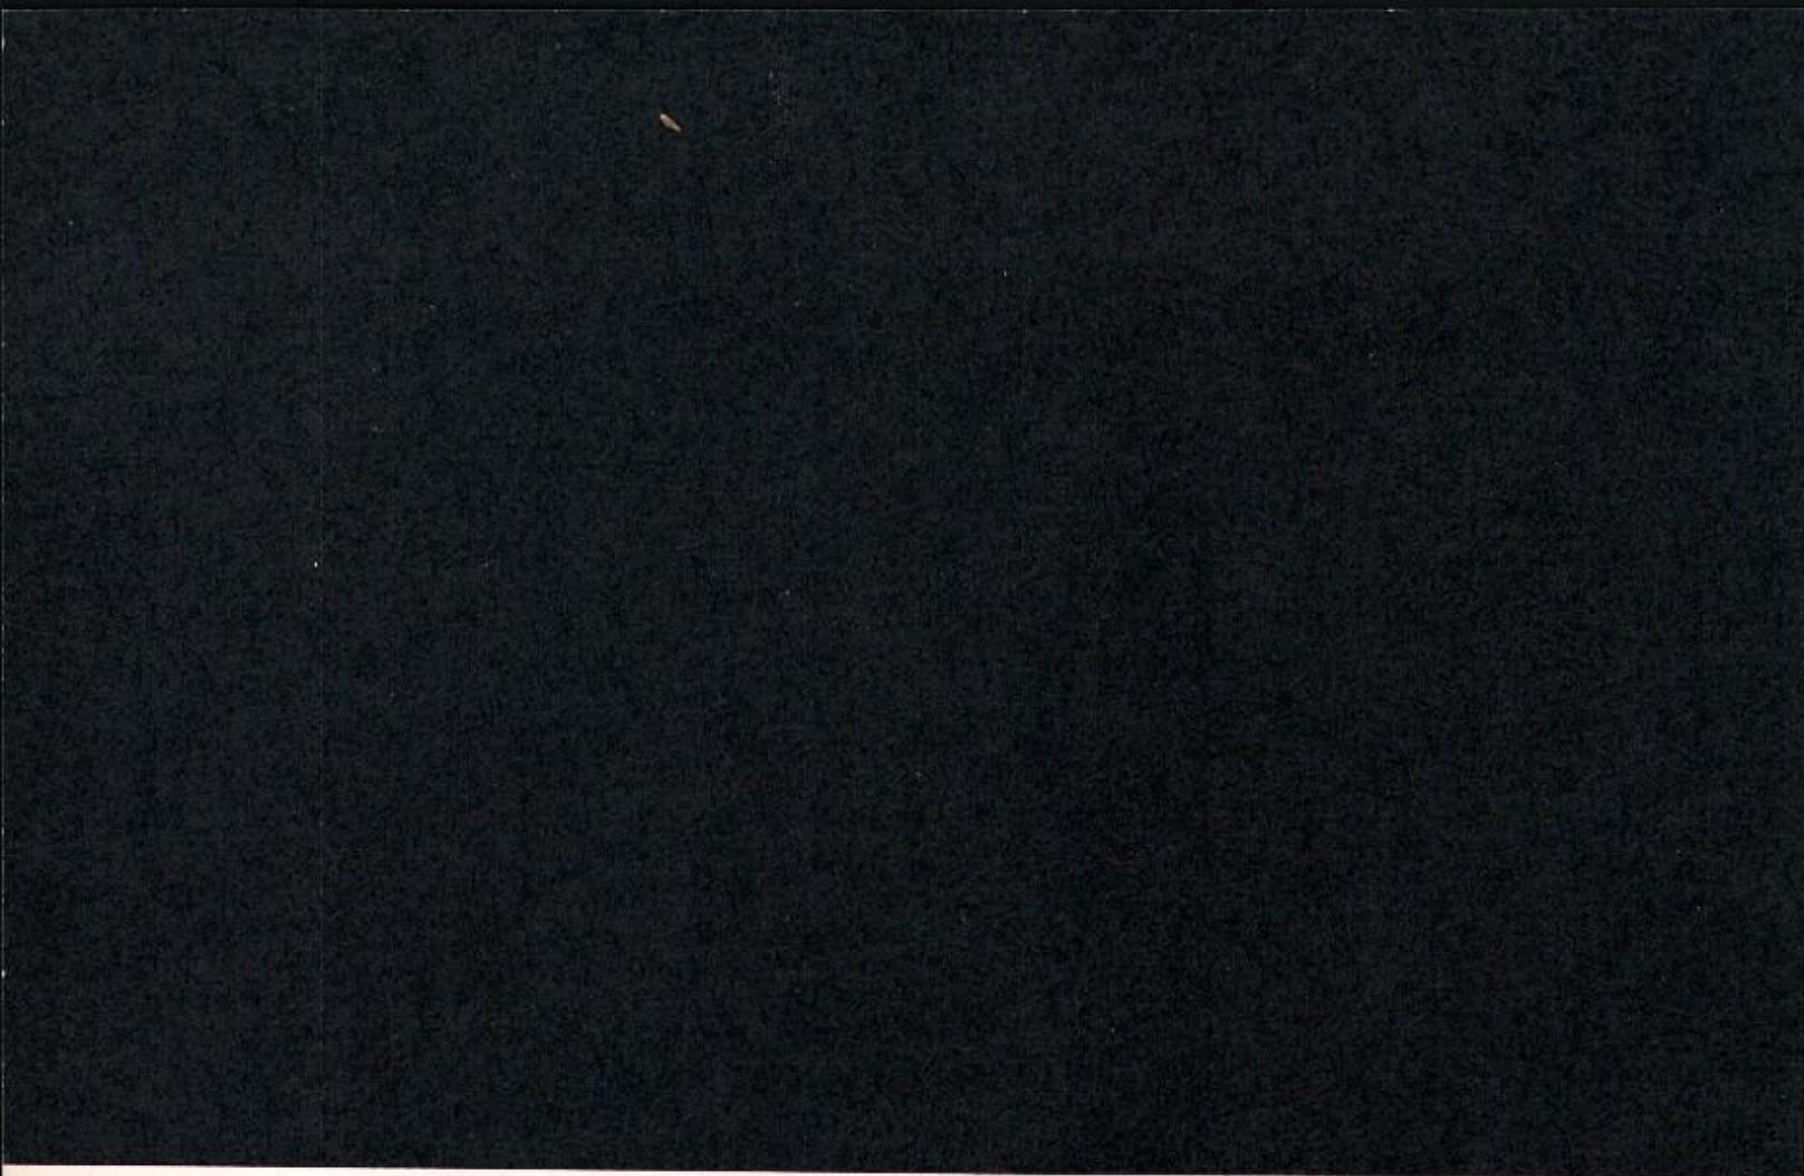

"It is getting late, so I will close this session with some sad predictions. Mr. Jerry Maloney has lost all his waist-length hair and will never shave his mustache, (what's left of it) but Miss Debbie White will always have her red hair. All of Miss Vicki Park's walking lessons are failures. But John Calaway becomes a successful writer when he writes his first best seller, "How to Love Three Women at One Time."

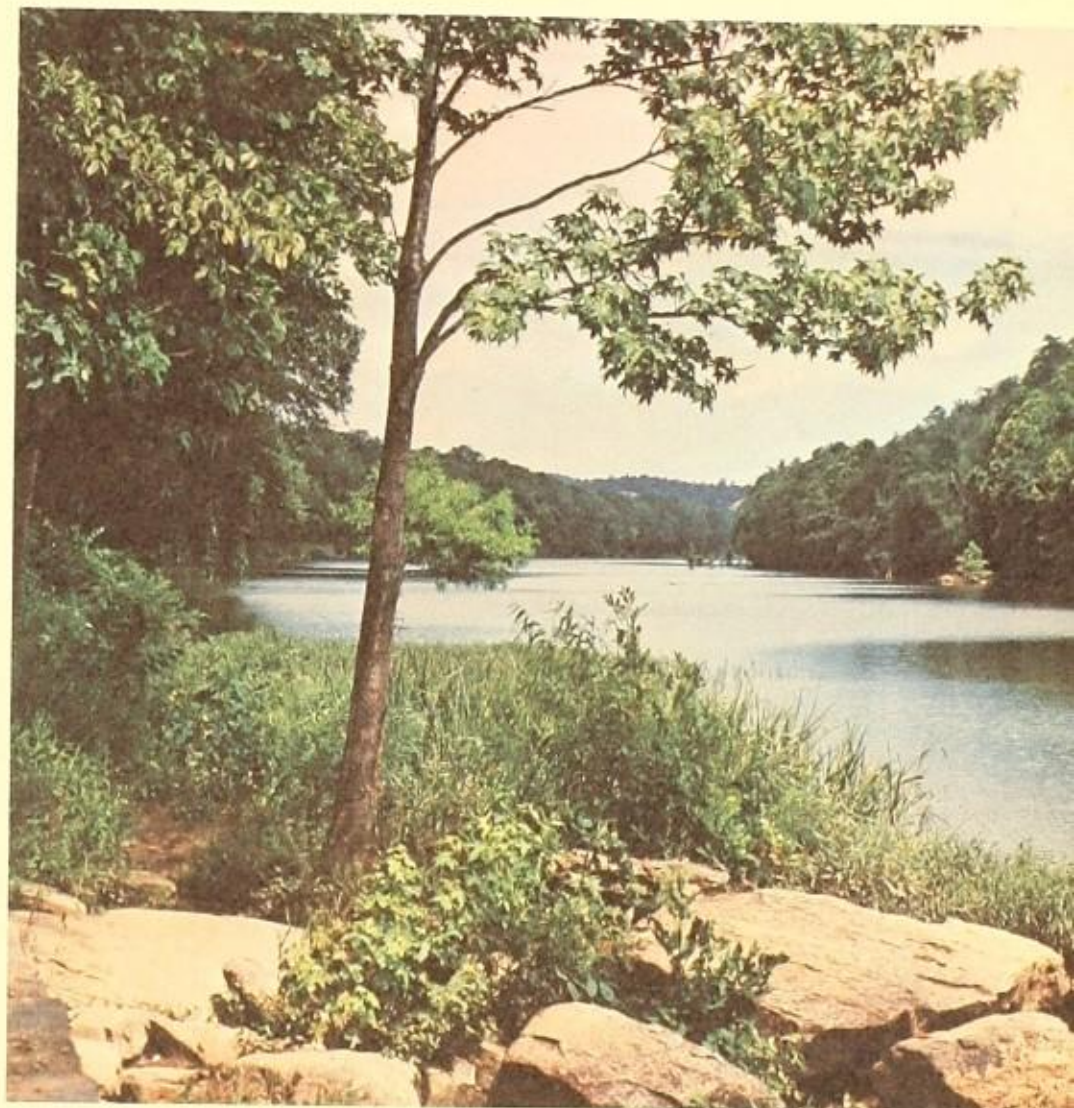

The 1973 seniors gathered around the crystal ball and were amazed as they saw them admitting Renee Bridges to the Lubbock State School.
